Smt. Rewa Mehta ..Petitioner

Vs.

State of Maharashtra and ors. ..Respondents

Mr. S.B. Deshmukh with Mr. S.P. Pawar for petitioner.
Mr. A.H. Palekar, AGP for respondent nos.1 and 2.
Ms. Sheeja John i/by M/s. M.P. Savla and Co. for respondent no.3.

CORAM: B.H. MARLAPALLE, J.

Date : August 2, 2006.

P.C.:

1. The Principal Secretary to the Government of Maharashtra has decided a revision application under Section 154 of the Maharashtra Co-Operative Societies Act, 1960 and dismissed the same by his Judgment and Order dated 9/3/1998. Mr. Deshmukh the learned counsel for the petitioner states that the second revision against the said order has been filed by the present petitioner who was one of the respondents in the revision already decided by the Principal Secretary.

2. Ms. John the learned counsel appearing for respondent no.3 states that the second revision application under Section 154 filed by any party to the proceedings in the first revision application cannot be entertained as has been a consistent view of this court and in this regard she has referred to the decision of this court in the case of Bhupendra Villa Premises Co-operative Society Ltd. and anr. vs. Chandrakant G. Shah and ors. (2000(3) Bom.C.R.199).

3. Mr. Deshmukh states that in the pending revision the Government is at liberty to decide the issue of maintainability of the same as well and, therefore, he seeks directions to decide the said revision expeditiously and dispose off the petition in terms of such directions.

4. Prayer granted and it is directed that the pending revision filed by the petitioner against the order of the Principal Secretary be heard and decided, even on the point of its maintainability, as expeditiously as possible and preferably within a period of three months from today. Undoubtedly, the respective parties will be issued notice by the State Government for hearing of the pending revision application.

5. Petition disposed off accordingly.
